

Envoys Sponsor Benefit

Netherlands Ambassador van Rotten and Israeli Ambassador Eban are sponsors of the premiere showing of the 20th Century-Fox film, The Diary of Anne Frank, to be presented Tuesday at 8:30 p.m. at the Uptown Theater.

The showing will be a benefit for the Capital Area Division, American Association for the United Nations.

Mrs. Robert Low Bacon and Mr. Francis B. Sayre are chairman of patrons and patronesses.

Another feature of the evening will be the presentation of awards to the Washington-area winners in the high school contest on the U. N.

Other patrons include Mr. and Mrs. Robert Amory, Dr. and Mrs. Montgomery Blair, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Woods Bliss, Mr. and Mrs. Percival Brundage, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Cowen, Mrs. William O. Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Graham and Mr. and Mrs. James L. Houghteling.

Still others are Secretary of the Interior and Mrs. Seaton, Postmaster General and Mrs. Summerfield, Mrs. Earl Warren, Mr. and Mrs. L. Corbin Strong, Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, Mrs. Alice Leopold, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Marriott, District Commissioner and Mrs. Robert E. McLaughlin, Mrs. Perle Mesta, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Meyer, Mrs. George Maurice Morris, Mr. Francis Wilcox and Mr. and Mrs. Orme Wilson.

COPYRIGHT